

1. Databases

1. <https://pubsonline.informs.org/>

- The Institute for Operations Research and the Management Sciences (INFORMS) is the largest professional society in the world for professionals in the field of operations research (O.R.).

INFORMS publishes 12 scholarly journals that describe the latest O.R. methods and applications and a membership magazine with news from across the profession. (More Info...)

2. <https://www.tandfonline.com/>

- Taylor & Francis has grown rapidly over the last two decades to become a leading international academic publisher.
- More than 1000 journal titles in a full range of disciplines. (More Info...)

3. <https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/>

- Since the Blackwell-Synergy merger with Wiley-Interscience, all the journals available to HEC consortium are now available through Wiley-Interscience.
- Online database containing over 1,234 journals in science, technology, medicine, humanities and social sciences.

4. <https://link.springer.com/>

- Springer Link provides access to 503 full-text Springer-Verlag Journals and 738 full-text journals formerly published by Kluwer Academic Publishing.
- One of the world's leading information services for Science, Technical and Medical journals.

2. Journals

2.1 National E-Journals

Pakistan Journal of Professional Psychology

<https://pjpprp.pu.edu.pk/jour/pjpprp/>

Pakistan Journal of Professional Psychology: Research and Practice is an official Bi Annual research journal published by the Center for Clinical Psychology, University of the Punjab, Lahore, Pakistan since 2006. PJPPRP encourages articles from different specializations in psychology and allied discipline covering all aspects of human behavior. Though original articles based on empirical data are preferred, but brief reports, review articles and single case studies are also considered for publication in the PJPPRP. It is added to the HEC list of Z category Journals and indexed in a Malaysian Website UDL edge: www.udledge.com

Pakistan Journal of Social and Clinical Psychology (PJSCP)

Pakistan Journal of Social and Clinical Psychology (PJSCP) is a HEC recognized Y category Journal, published biannually by the Department of Psychology, Government College University, Lahore. The first Issue of PJSCP was published in the summer of 2003. The Journal caters to original research articles and brief reports. Over the years of its publication PJSCP has published high quality qualitative and quantitative research articles and short reports from researchers across the globe.

Pakistan Journal of Social Issues

The Pakistan Journal of Social Issues (PJSI) is double blind reviewed multidisciplinary annual publication of the University of Gujrat aimed at providing an independent interdisciplinary forum for discourse on significant social science research and policy issues. It deals with questions of social justice broadly defined. Articles discuss particular social science or humanities issues, review conceptual problems, present empirical reports and debate policy alternatives. We encourage authors to discuss their research experiences and debate whether these experiences feed into an increased understanding of the research realm. We welcome papers in the field of Social Sciences and Humanities, including Sociology, Psychology, Political Science, Anthropology, History, Philosophy, Economics, Public Health, Education, Statistics and Management Sciences.

Peshawar Journal of Psychology and Behavioral Sciences (PJPBS)

Peshawar Journal of Psychology and Behavioral Sciences (PJPBS) is open access Journal, published biannually by the Department of Psychology, Islamia College Peshawar. It publishes original empirical articles covering diverse facets of Psychology and Behavioral Sciences. It is intended to be a forum for generating discourse that blends science and theory and ultimately evolves into practice and policy. PJPBS looks forward to receiving research from all corners of the world.

Associations

American Psychological Association (APA)

<https://www.apa.org/>

APA is the leading scientific and professional organization representing psychology in the United States, with more than 121,000 researchers, educators, clinicians, consultants and students as its members. APA is positioning our field to play a leading role in addressing the grand challenges of today and the future.

International Council of Psychologists

<https://icpweb.org/>

ICP is committed to promoting human rights, dignity and justice, and to strengthening collaboration among researchers, educators and applied professionals globally for the purpose of furthering international understanding and world peace. In 2016-7, the International Council of Psychologists, Inc.(ICP) celebrated its 75th year as a pioneering professional association.

British Psychological Society

<https://www.bps.org.uk/>

The British Psychological Society is a registered charity which acts as the representative body for psychology and psychologists in the UK, and is responsible for the promotion of excellence and ethical practice in the science, education, and application of the discipline. As a society we support and enhance the development and application of psychology for the greater public good, setting high standards for research, education, and knowledge, and disseminating our knowledge to increase public awareness.

European Community Psychology Association (ECPA)

<https://www.ecpa-online.com/>

The European Community Psychology Association (ECPA) was founded out of the European Network of Community Psychologists. Main Goals of ECPA includes, Awareness of, education, training, and research, as well as practical applications, of community psychology in the general body of psychology, Critical debate of key issues in community psychology and related issues, Progressive influence of community psychology on practice and policy, Personal health, human development and social justice, Dismantling of disabling societal barriers and psychologically damaging contexts and practices.

International Positive Psychology Association (IPPA)

<https://ippanetwork.org/>

Positive psychology is an exciting new field of inquiry that has captured the interest of thousands of researchers, practitioners, and students from around the world. This burgeoning area of psychology focuses on the study and practice of the positive emotions, strengths, and virtues that make individuals and institutions thrive. Since its inception in 1998, the field has seen an investment of tens of millions of dollars in research, the founding of several scientific journals, the development of masters, and Ph.D. programs in key universities, and reports in major news outlets (including cover stories in Time, Newsweek, and U.S. News & World Report). In addition, the International Positive Psychology Association (IPPA) has grown to thousands of members from more than 70 countries!

Pakistan Psychological Association (PPA)

<http://www.psychologypak.org/index.php>

Pakistan Psychological Association (PPA) is the only Academic and Professional Organization of Pakistani Psychologists. It was established in March 1968 at Dhaka, by a Convention specially called for this purpose. PPA has a membership of about several hundred qualified Pakistani Psychologists working in various fields of life including College and University Teaching, Clinical Practice, Counseling, Provincial and Federal Public Service Commissions Organizations, NGOs, Health departments and in the Armed Forces.

Pakistan Psychological Society

<https://pkps.org/>

The Pakistan Psychological Society is committed to advance psychology as a discipline and profession. It spreads the message that psychologists make a difference and are dedicated to the betterment of community at large through improving scientific knowledge. Pakistan Psychological Society's members form a dynamic group that advocate the need and rationale of psychologists at all levels of public enterprise. They strive to promote community's well being, enhance peoples' health and to contribute toward the socioeconomic growth of Pakistan. Pakistan is a developing nation. The role of psychologists for the social growth of society cannot be denied. Psychologists have been serving in different walks of Pakistani society contributing to the uplift of society and masses. The formation of a platform for psychologists of Pakistan is needed strongly. Pakistan Psychological Society is such an example.